From the Pastor's Desk

As requested, I am reprinting: The Beatitudes for Carers (taken from Windows on the Gospel: Stories and Reflections by Flor McCarthy) that I shared in my homily last weekend.

1. Blessed are those who care and who are not afraid to show it—they will let people know they are loved.
2. Blessed are those who are gentle and patient—they will help people to grow as the sun helps the buds to open and blossom.
3. Blessed are those who have the ability to listen—they will lighten many a burden.
4. Blessed are those who know how and when to let go—they will have the joy of seeing people find themselves.
5. Blessed are those who, when nothing can be done or said, do not walk away, but remain to provide a comforting and supportive presence—they will help the sufferer to bear the unbearable.
6. Blessed are those who recognize their own need to receive, and who receive with graciousness—they will be able to give all the better.
7. Blessed are those who give without hope of return—they will give people an experience of God.

Yes, the Word of God is personified in the Good Samaritan. Yes, the Word of God is Jesus himself, who speaks to us, heals us and who is ever close to us. Quoting The Word Among Us: "At Mass, thank the Lord for having treated [us] with so much mercy. Then ask him to show [us] how to be a Good Samaritan to someone who needs [our] love, compassion, and care." "Lord, help us to be merciful as you are merciful."

The Second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

"A society truly welcomes life when it recognizes that it is also precious in old age, in disability, in serious illness and even when it is fading." (Pope Francis at General Audience, June 15)

On July 24, 2022 we will celebrate the second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. Pope Francis' goal of creating this yearly world day was to bring attention to our need to care for our elderly. The Office for Family Ministry has also created a Family Memory Book which might be a great activity for families to undertake on this special day, or at some other time to remember their family roots. It is a great book to fill in with grandparents. The document is posted on our website. Pope Francis' Message for the Second World Day for Grandparents is also posted.

Prayer For The Second World Day For Grandparents And The Elderly July 24, 2022

I give thanks to you, Lord,
For the blessing of a long life
For, to those who take refuge in You,
Grant always to bear fruit.
Forgive, O Lord,
Resignation and disillusionment,
But forsake me not
When my strength declines.
Teach me to look with hope
To the future you give me,
To the mission you entrust to me
And to sing your praises without end.
Make me a tender craftsman
Of Your revolution,
To guard with love my grandchildren
And all the little ones who seek shelter in You.
Protect, O Lord, Pope Francis
And grant Thy Church
To deliver the world from loneliness.
Direct our steps in the way of peace.
Amen.
